THE WEATHER AND BUTTER

are alike. They cannot be depended upon. They vary and change constantly. No butter is of the same excellence continuously. Butter that you say is a pound for one lot may be half a pound for the next. Price is no guarantee of quality. With ALDERNEY CREAMERY BUTTER is of the same excellence at all times—i. e., the highest excellence. It is absolutely uniform and never varies. Same with the price—20c a pound every day in the year. No disappointments come to shame you when the guests are assembled around your festive board. ALDERNEY CREAMERY BUTTER is invariably superior to butter, in that it is only delicate in bouquet; it retains that delicious sweetness to the end; does not get rancid, and it costs less. 20c a pound at all times.

MRS. WALLER HAS ARRIVED

She Will Present Her Husband's Case to the State Department.

Her Journey to the United States Was Made at the Expense of the Government.

Mrs. John Waller, the wife of ex-consul Waller, of Madagascar, whose case has created a great stir in French and American diplomatic circles, and which has lent much interest to his wife as his representative, arrived in this city yesterday morning. She repaired at once to the residence of friends at No. 3116 A street northeast. Mrs. Waller is accompanied by her children, Helen, Jennie, John L., Jr., and Minnie.

Her trip to America was made at the expense of the Government of the United States, and a great deal of it has been made in manner that was quite distasteful to Mrs. Waller, who was used to the court society at the Madagascar capital.

The first part of her trip was from Antananarivo to the west coast, a distance of 240 miles, in pampans, thence to France, where she was denied the privilege of communication with her husband in Clairvaux prison; and from there to New York.

Mrs. Waller's case is so well understood that it is unnecessary to tell Americans its details again. Mrs. Waller was called on yesterday by The Times, whose representative she received very cordially. Part of her story was, of course, the circumstances which led to the arrest of her husband and his trial and conviction by a chain-lightning court. It is familiar to everybody that the United States ambassador is making an effort to have Waller released, and that question is to be further discussed by Mrs. Waller with the State Department.

According to Mrs. Waller, the arrest of Mr. Waller was without authority or reason. The arrest was based on certain letters found in his possession, one of which was from a French gentleman requesting Mr. Waller, who was about to visit the United States, to purchase him some revolver, which instance the French officers construed into an attempt by Mr. Waller to arm the whole French nation. Other allegations against him were based on two letters to his wife, in one of which he said that he believed that his wife went into the interior were French spies.

With these facts before them the French authorities proceeded to the trial which was conducted in French. Mrs. Waller's understanding that language, and Mrs. Waller says that a great deal he said was misconstrued by the interpreter. Mrs. Waller was obliged to sign a deposition which was in French.

Mrs. Waller has in her possession some documentary evidence which she thinks will strengthen the case of her husband. It is understood that ex-Congressman John M. Langston will represent Mrs. Waller.

The Wallers own a tract of 235 square miles of Madagascar territory purchased from the Hovas, and it is said that the extent of this possession is largely the animus of French in instituting the proceeding which ended in the incarceration of Mr. Waller.

Dudley May Be a Murderer.

Nellie Armstrong, who was assaulted several months ago by Toots Dudley, and who had her skull badly fractured by the force of the blow is still alive but in such a condition that Dudley may soon be a murderer.

Dudley is out of this jurisdiction, the police have learned, having flown to Pittsburgh or in that vicinity.
